Leveraging project management for excellence, growth and transformation

Leveraging Project Management for excellence, growth and transformation

Project Management Conference, India is a three-day professional development event, hosted by Project Management Institute (PMI). It provides an opportunity for thousands of professionals across all industries to exchange ideas on today's project challenges and emerging trends.

Value that Conference provides to your employees

Gaining practical knowledge and sound ideas It's not just about getting education, it's about getting the right education. The Conference offers over 30 educational sessions delivered by experienced presenters that allow attendees to select a variety of topics each day that suit their interest and career needs. With limited budgets for professional development, it is crucial that your employees get the most out of their experience. The Conference offers tools, techniques, and practical knowledge that they can put to work immediately.

- Building a professional network

Attendees can engage with peers and thought leaders to gain insights, and learn about services and solutions from suppliers

- Fulfilling Continuing Educational Requirements

Participation in Conference educational sessions allows PMI credential holders the opportunity to stay sharp with current project management knowledge, while earning Professional Development Units (PDUs) necessary to maintain their credential.

- What value will Conference bring to your organization?

Top executives report that project management is becoming increasingly important to their companies, and that project managers can improve business performance in any industry. Attendees will take home the new ideas and insights that will allow them to introduce change and innovation to your organization and deliver outstanding results.

Conference offers knowledge, exchange of ideas, training and exposure to the most current resources for project management, which can have an immediate impact on the success of your projects. Invest in your employee's professional development at Project Management Conference, India 2010, and your organization will benefit as well.
