There is much talk about the New Normal. What exactly is it? Truth is that it is still unravelling. What we do know though is that everything will continue to be in a state of flux. We are in for a time where change will be the only constant. So how do you manage your world of work in such a situation? By embracing change. By gaining the skills and the mind-set that will help you navigate change on a recurring basis. Is that even possible? Yes it is! In fact it is compelling the project management community across the globe to think out of the box. To pull those proverbial rabbits out of their skill hats. It is incredible how many organizations across the globe have thrived during this period of
